Some are like wheelbarrows — have to be pushed;

Some are like trailers — have to be pulled.

Some are like kites — always trying to fly away.

Some are like kittens — more contented when petted.

Some are like footballs — you can never tell which way they will bounce.

Some are like balloons — full of wind and ready to explode.

Some are like neon signs — always going from on to off.

Some are like a "dead" battery — no energy or power.

Some are like the hitchhiker — want a free ride while others foot all the expenses.

Some are like an iceberg — cold and dangerous.

Some are like a candle under a basket — useless.

Some are like salt mixed with sand — no saving power.

Some are like little children — no sense of responsibility.

Some are like falling leaves — carried away with the lightest wind of doctrine.

Some are like the Rock of Gibraltar — Firm, Unmovable.
