SUNDAY MORNING
Today Is A Gift
Psalms 118:24

SUNDAY EVENING
Be Filled With These
Galatians 5:22-23

Where visitors are always our welcomed guests, and members share opportunities to serve the Lord, God is revealed to man through the Bible, and through a knowledge of the Bible, man comes to know God.

SHUT-IN OF THE WEEK: Madolyn Pardue is our shut-in of the week. She will be 101 on September 27. Her address is 2996 Curd Road, Mt. Juliet, TN 37122. Calls, visits, cards and prayers help to lift the spirits and bring joy to these precious souls, and any recognition is meaningful to them.

SYMPATHY: To Brenda Abernathy for the passing of her husband Oliver Abernathy last Thursday morning. He will be at Forest Lawn in Goodlettsville. The arrangements have not been made at this time. Please keep Brenda and her family in your prayers.

MEN’S BIBLE STUDY: Will meet This Tuesday Evening September 23 at 6:00 at the building. Bring a Friend.

*Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father in heaven.
Matthew 5:16*

WELCOME VISITORS

It is our utmost concern to worship God as closely as possible to the way the church in the first century did. We use the examples of the Bible to conduct our services. We pray that you will be encouraged by our service, and will feel free to ask us any questions you might have. Please remain after worship service so we can have a chance to meet you.

NURSERY

For those in need of a cry-room, there is one in back of the auditorium on the right. There is also a full nursery. Go through the door on the left of the pulpit and down the hall to the left. There are changing tables in the ladies’ and men’s restrooms in the foyer.

Thank you so much for all the visits, phone calls, texts, cards food and especially your prayers. I really appreciate all of my church family helping me through this difficult time.
All of you mean a lot to me.

In Christian Love,
Brenda George

We would like to thank everyone for the cards and emails. Sorry to miss so much church but hope to return as soon as possible. Thanks for all the prayers.
We miss and love you all.

Our Love,
Chuck & Carolyn Koudelka

Friendly Reminder... please adjust cell phones
prior to services.
Thank you

I Believe God

After Paul was seized by the mob in Jerusalem, he was taken into Roman custody. And because a Jewish plot to take his life was discovered, the Romans transferred him to Caesarea. While there, Paul had the opportunity to defend himself before governors Felix and Festus. And it was before Festus that Paul made his famous appeal to be taken before Caesar saying: "I stand at Caesar's judgment seat, where I ought to be judged. To the Jews I have done no wrong, as you very well know. For if I am an offender, or have committed anything deserving of death, I do not object to dying; but if there is nothing in these things of which these men accuse me, no one can deliver me to them. I appeal to Caesar" (Acts 25:10-11).

After assuring Paul that his request would be granted, Festus made provisions for him to be taken by ship to Rome. But that voyage, like most of Paul's other experiences, was not to be without incident. In the midst of the long journey, a storm, so severe that "sailors were seeking to escape from the ship" (Acts 27:30), encompassed the vessel. Nevertheless, an angel assured Paul that he and all those present on the voyage would survive the impending wreck. Thus, Paul spoke: "Therefore take heart, men, for I believe God that it will be just as it was told me" (Acts 27:25).

Paul's words reflect the confidence that all Christians should have in God's Word. He knew that if God had promised his safety, he would be safe indeed. No wonder Paul later wrote: "...I know whom I have believed and am persuaded that He is able to keep what I have committed to Him until that Day" (2 Timothy 1:12).
