WELCOME VISITORS

It is our utmost concern to worship God as closely as possible to the way the church in the first century did. We use the examples of the Bible to conduct our services. We pray that you will be encouraged by our service, and will feel free to ask us any questions you might have. Please remain after worship service so we can have a chance to meet you.

NURSERY

For those in need of a cry-room, there is one in back of the auditorium on the right. There is also a full nursery. Go through the door on the left of the pulpit and down the hall to the left. There are changing tables in the ladies' and men's restrooms in the foyer.

Thank ya'll so much for the cards and calls that so many sent to me following my accident. One often forgets how precious the very acts of walking, talking, hearing, seeing and every other sensation until they are gone. Fortunately I have regained almost all of that so far. It has taught me quite a lot more, like the meaning of Psalm 90:12 "Teach us to number our days, that we may gain a heart of wisdom." I am so very thankful that my expiration date was not that day! In closing, I will say do not drop a 1300 pound zero turn on your head, at least for me it did not turn out as well as I had figured. I hope to see all of ya'll soon! Psalm 46:1 "God is our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in trouble."

With Love and Thanks
Bryan Hardaway...(Bubba)

We are so blessed to be a part of this congregation. Your prayers, calls, texts, and cards were so appreciated during Mike's hospitalization last month. He is getting back to himself. Also thanks for sending cards to Mom for her 90th birthday and cards in general. She enjoys getting them. This church is such an inspiration to us. We love you all. Thanks again.

In Christian Love,
Mike & Carla

I'M GOING HOME WITH YOU, TODAY

Luke 10:1-10

A stranger walks up to you suggesting going home with you, what would you say? "You wished," or "You are making a mistake pal." If persisted, you may wish to call law enforcements. On the other hand, an acquaintance abruptly suggests going home with you and instantly you start thinking about excuses because your home is in disarray. One wish is, to put off this unplanned visit for another time. Does this bring back any memories?

In his thirties, Jesus came in contact with a rich man who anxiously waited to have a clear view of him from the top of a fruit tree. This was the first time meeting Jesus. Though rich, he had a crooked personality and was disliked by most people, with the exception of those who served under him. However, Jesus wanted to go home with him that day. Without any hesitation, he said to our Lord, 'Come on!' The spectators were disappointed at Jesus willingness to hang out with him. Would we have objected? May be or maybe not.

As Jesus was relaxing and snacking with him at home, the rich man's heart convinced him to do the right thing. He volunteered to return more of what he stole from others and also declared to share his wealth with the poor. Jesus loved him when he saw him on that fig tree and now He approved of him among critics.... "Today, salvation has come to your house."

This once twisted man can now be proud of his real name, Zacchaeus, which means CLEAN in Hebrew. What a feeling of relief when Jesus accepts us for who we are?

Lessons gleaned

1. Our sins are not too bad not be forgiven by the Lord, no matter what the critics may say.
2. (1 Cor.6:9-11) If Christ welcomes sinners, who am I to stand in their way? (LK.19:10)
3. As Christ invites Himself to your home (heart), right at this moment, would you do what Zacchaeus did, by welcoming Him? (Matt.10:32)
